- 1. Prime Time Theater | Every three weeks a new segment of "Gutes Wedding, schlechtes Wedding" (Good Wedding, Bad Wedding) runs and transports the audience into a world of Döner-eating taxi drivers, mullet-sporting mailmen, and local tramps. Worth seeing social study | Müllerstraße 163b | www.primetimetheater.de
- 2. US-Military-Shop | Whether it's SWAT drill shoes, camouflage vests or "British police helmets," at Sylvia and Mike's store you can find all you need for feeling safe in neighborhoods of ill repute | Müllerstraße 159a | www.us-military-shop.de
- 3. Hausbrauerei Eschenbräu | The nice small business promises unfiltered enjoyment for Berlin. Seasonal beers are served in the pleasant garden or comfy basement | Triftstr. 67 | www.eschenbraeu.de
- 4. Beuth Hochschule für Technik | In 1826 the school's namesake smuggled the most modern machines from England into Berlin in order to teach his students the high tech of the times every start is tough. Since then new developments have been made here, successful ones at that | Corner of Luxemburger and Genter Straße | www.beuth-hochschule.de
- 5. Bei Ernst | Jam sessions, open mics, and bingo the night owl program lives up to its self-titled name of the "cultural oasis in Berlin-Wedding." Friendly bar with local crowd | Sprengelstraße 15 | www.bei-ernst.de
- 6. Wedding Art | Gallery and studio for contemporary art in Berlin-Mitte. "Rent-a-wall" here you can affordably rent a section of a wall and show your own work | Tegeler Str. 40 | www.wedding-art.de
- 7. auszeit | Lounge atmosphere in green and beige the design cafe is also a restaurant and bar. Very nice location near the Nordufer | Kiautschoustraße 12a | www.auszeitberlin.de
- 8. Nettelbeckplatz | Only a few meters from the Ringbahn station and already smack in the middle of the vibrant life of the neighborhood. Near the fountain "Dance on the Volcano" a wonderful view of authentic Wedding reveals itself | Eastern exit of Wedding station
- 9. Krematorium Wedding | Up until 2002 local patriotic Weddingers could be cremated here near their homes. The overgrown urn cemetery is also an inviting location for the living | Gerichtstraße 37/38

- 10. Pharmacampus | Pharmaceutical industry district with parks and promenades | Müllerstraße 170-171
- 11. Pankeweg | Along the little river Panke a path leads through small parks, past old factory yards and overgrown ruins. This path gives proof: "Big city romanticism" is no empty statement | Walter-Nicklitz-Promenade
- 12. Stadtbad Wedding | Art, not water, fills the pools. Exhibitions take place in this closed swimming pool. On the façade is the largest tape art painting in the world | Gerichtstraße 65-69 | www.stadtbad-wedding.de
- 13. Kunst in den Gerichtshöfen e.V. One of the largest art quarters in Germany, the studios present the whole nine yards of contemporary art: photography, painting, graphic design, sculpture, ceramics, textile objects, light installations and video art | Gerichtstraße 12/13 | www.gerichtshoefe.de
